

Which of the four motivations for evangelism, rooted in the passage Chris read, stood out to you? What thoughts would you add?

How have you seen evangelism done in a beautiful way that respects and honours people who are not yet followers of Jesus?

Optional: What do you find to be the greatest challenge in mobilizing people for evangelism?